ACNA COUNCIL MEETING Business by Day, Fellowship by Night

By Bro. Dony Rondilla

The 2026 APO ACNA Council Meeting, held September 4–6 in Foster City, California, was more than a weekend of meetings—it was a weekend of APO fellowship, friendship, food, fun, and memories.

Hosted by APO Central Valley of California (APO-CVC) under the leadership of President Sis. Gigi Sales and Event Chairman Bro. Elmer De Loyola, ably supported by the entire APO-CVC membership, the gathering brought together more than 20 alumni association presidents from across the USA and Canada.

But the APO weekend actually started on Wednesday.

Early arrivals were welcomed with wine tasting, dinner, and fellowship, followed by more arrivals on Thursday who enjoyed a Bay Area sightseeing excursion and dinner at Isla Restaurant, courtesy of our APO-Hawaii delegation.

And then there was Room 440.

Room 440 quickly became the unofficial “APO Headquarters of Fellowship”—the place to go when the day’s activities were over and nobody was quite ready to call it a night. Food, beer, wine, single-malt whisky, and VSOP Cognac seemed to have a permanent reservation there. The door was open, the conversations lively, and the fellowship continued late into the night.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Brothers and Sisters of Alpha Phi Omega,

As we enter September 2026, we begin a significant period in our fraternity calendar marked by renewed focus, strengthened engagement, and continued commitment to the principles of Leadership, Friendship, and Service.

Under the leadership of Sis Gigi Sales Francisco, and with the dedicated support of Bro Elmer De Loyola and the members of APOCVC, the ACNA Fall Meeting in Foster City was successfully hosted. Congratulations to the team for a well organized and meaningful gathering.

September is a powerful reminder of our lifelong call to service. As our communities resume full activity after summer, APOGLA steps forward with purpose—organizing Bro Geoffrey Arroyo Seal Beach Clean Up, mobilizing volunteers, and reinforcing our commitment to making a positive impact to our communities. We would like to extend our sincere gratitude to Bro. Yusuf Maiden, Bro. Gielly Duldulao, and Bro. Roland Paras of Beta Tau Chapter for spearheading this event and for generously providing Tshirts to all volunteers. Their leadership and support greatly contributed to the success of our gathering.

We also kindly requested all birthday celebrants to bring food and drinks to share, adding to the spirit of fellowship and camaraderie during the event.

This month serves as an important bridge between our midyear accomplishments and the preparations required for our upcoming yearend activities. Our upcoming October 24th General Membership Meeting, which includes the Presentation of Candidates for 2027 and our Election followed by Halloween Night Event on the 31st of October.

The APOGLA extends its heartfelt appreciation as we celebrate our annual Thanksgiving on November 21st. This occasion honors the unwavering dedication of our brothers and sisters and recognizes those who have exemplified outstanding commitment throughout the year and of course, the President State of the Fraternity 2026.

We are pleased to announce our muchawaited APOGLA December Affair, which will be held on December 12, 2026, at the Hilton Hotel. This special evening marks a significant milestone as we join the entire fraternity worldwide in celebrating the 101st Anniversary of Alpha Phi Omega Internationally.

This gathering will be a night of celebration, fellowship, and camaraderie, bringing together brothers and sisters from across our alumni community. As we honor more than a century of Leadership, Friendship, and Service, we look forward to strengthening our bonds and commemorating the enduring legacy of our beloved APOGLA.

Lastly, we kindly remind everyone to continue supporting our December Affair Souvenir Program and to settle early payments for the Dinner Dance. Your timely support ensures the smooth preparation and success of our upcoming celebration. Once again, our sincere thanks to all.

At your service,
Bro Joseph 'Jobee' Jovellanos

Family - Our treasured beginnings

By Bro. Ferdie Yambot

People's lives start from inner family in the care of our parents and loved ones. The values and unconditional love handed over and instilled upon us by our parents since birth are treasures no one can ever take away. Our individual characters develop from that inner circle, nurtured by exposure to caring, sharing, respect and obedience to elders; it's these learned/acquired traits/skills that serve as our life patterns in eventually dealing with society. Yes, our inner core upbringing is the foundation of our natural instincts; it is the "rock" that steadies our whole character and being! We owe it all to our parents, not to mention our closest relatives.

On parenthood, the true legacy of loving parents is not measured by how much they leave behind but by how much their children stay together after they're gone. When brothers and sisters continue to love, respect and support each other, the parents' sacrifices live on through them!

It's with my/our pride and honor to humbly claim that my clan is blessed to stay close-knit amidst its humongous growth. We do it through concerted effort by all clan members!

Coming from the humblest of beginnings, my/our very parents' journey is a testament to persevering efforts to arise from poverty. Amidst having started from a turbulent setting (start of WW2), the two first born (girl and boy) were war babies surviving enemy attacks with parents' clever tactics. (My father was a guerilla leader who wisely used wartime intelligence to avoid/avert an-masse hostilities; barely survived with limited resources.)

When the war ended, the family grew with many more births – total of 8 kids (I was the 4th). The family thrived through rural hardships, modestly surviving, but a lofty ambition emerged as all the kids showed promise. The entire family became the community's role model for aiming to ascend from poverty. With smarts inherited from our parents, all the kids end up at the top of their classes (elementary and HS) at end of school years..... and that's when the lofty ambitions started.... aim even higher to go to college and become professionals. But of course, it was a fact that only rich people can afford expensive college schooling, hence our parents resorted to all the street smarts they could muster. Somehow, they managed and sent their promising kids to Manila colleges (UE, FEU, Adamson and UST) producing accountants, lawyers/teacher, engineers and medical technologists. What a glorious journey! As we raised our individual families, down the line, we produced scientists, doctors, nurses, engineers who all contributed to the US economy.

We're all mostly successful by our own standards! Who knew? Carefree and independent minds instilled upon us gave us the confidence to stand up for ourselves. Always in gratitude, the good Lord paved our ways!

The Shrink's "preaching" would be incomplete without mentioning some philosophical, for which I offer... "Even in negativity, there are lessons to learn", i.e.

- If nobody sees you as an enemy, you're not important
- If nobody talks behind your back, you're not relevant
- If somebody tries to take advantage of you, it means you have value
- If somebody tries to put you down, it means you're already above them
- Hate only comes from below, never from above
- If they doubt you, it means you're doing something
- Criticism is just a hidden form of admiration
- Your haters are actually your biggest fans; they just haven't figured out how to clap for themselves.

- Bro FerdieMY

Friday: Business and the Bay

Friday began with a Forum of Past Presidents and Organizers, discussing the present and future of ACNA while members and spouses toured San Francisco's iconic attractions—the Golden Gate Bridge, Fisherman's Wharf, the Fine Arts Museum, Lombard Street, and more.

The ACNA Board of Directors then met at the Crowne Plaza Hotel at 1:00 p.m. to tackle ACNA business. By this time, the Board had already passed 14 resolutions during the year. The day ended with a Welcome Dinner and, naturally, more fellowship.

Saturday: Council by Day, Masquerade by Night

The Council Meeting began Saturday at 9:00 a.m., led by ACNA President Bro. Art Rivera. Thanks in large part to the work of ACNA PRO Bro. Sancho Sy, in coordination with Bro. Art, most alumni association reports had already been published in the ACNA Council Newsletter. With everyone prepared, the Council moved efficiently through its reports and business and wrapped up by 3:00 p.m.

Then it was time to trade business attire for masks and evening wear.

The Gala Night Masquerade Ball was the perfect finale to a busy day. The band played its heart out—and the dance floor responded with non-stop dancing.

And when the music finally stopped, Room 440 was still open. The fellowship continued, with food and drinks flowing and stories, laughter, and old memories carrying the night well beyond midnight.

Sunday: Until We Meet Again

Sunday's going-away brunch brought the weekend to a close. There were hugs, handshakes, photographs, and the inevitable promise: "See you at the next APO gathering!"

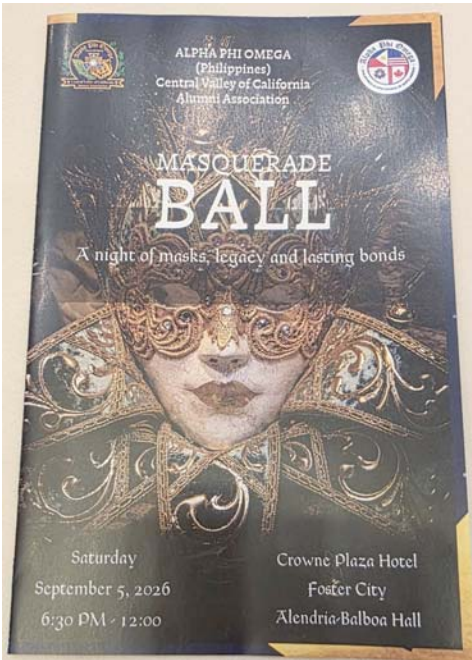

The 2026 ACNA Council Meeting may have been about organizational business, but Foster City reminded everyone that APO is ultimately about people—friendship, fellowship, service, and the bonds that endure through the years.

And the APO calendar is already looking ahead. The next ACNA Council Meeting will be held in Chicago in April 2027, followed by the main event—the APO-ACNA 18th Biennial Convention, hosted by the Toronto Alumni Association in September 2027.

It was truly another APO affair to remember!

FROM MY POINT OF VIEW

A Night of Music with World Renowned Filipino Tenor - ARTHUR ESPIRITU

By Bro. Dan Estabillo Nino

I'm not that person who just absorb all the information with hook, line and sinker. As opinion maker, I tend to be cynical and skeptical and not usually swayed by the facts fed to me without actually finding it out myself.

I challenged artist and impresario Errol C. Mendoza to invite concert main performer of "Voice After Nightfall", the world-renowned tenor Arthur Espiritu, so we can hear him actually sing some samples of his repertoire.

Lo and behold, Mr. Espiritu flew directly from Manila to Los Angeles enroute to his performance of "Mozart Requiem" with the Charlotte Opera, North Carolina, a day before to Los Angeles — to face the media in a presscon at Noypitz Bar & Grill, Long Beach, alongside my colleagues from the Philippine Global Media Group.

I was not disappointed. I was proven wrong. I was stunned. In his 40s, Arthur Espiritu showed his mettle as an established virtuoso during the press con when he sang three of his repertoire prior to his benefit concert on Sept. 26 at 6 pm at the Feddersen Recital Hall at Mt. SAC, 1100 North Grand Ave., Walnut, Ca.

With a powerful and expressive operatic tenor voice, Mr. Espiritu first belted out "Nahan" (a short cut for "Nasaan Ka Na"), composed by Philippine National Artist for music in 1999 Ernani Cuenco. "Nahan" is a love song so sentimental, emotional and heartfelt. The song was filled with longing and yearning that nearly cost the mid-size crowd into tears.

This was followed by "Che Gelida Manina", the most popular song in Giacomo Puccini's opera La Boheme's first act aria, as requested by Lydia V. Solis. La Boheme is the passionate and timeless story of love among young artists in 1830s Paris. It's a story of Mimi who was looking for her lost key and was found by aspiring poet Rodolfo who lived in the freezing attic. When he handed Mimi the key, he realized that her hands were cold and whispered, "I'll make your hands warm." They both fell in love.

At the urging of the crowd, Mr. Espiritu sang his third song "Ideale." The lyrics of longing and devotion were written by Italian poet Carmelo Errico and music was composed by Francesco Paolo Tosti. It's another love song published in 1882 with a theme of unattainable but idealized love who implored a beloved to come back like a "rainbow of peace."

Mr. Espiritu who holds a Master of Music and Bachelor of Arts degrees from the University of New Orleans under the studio of Dr. Raquel Cortina has several stints across Europe and the Cultural Center of the Philippines. He is now teaching Voice and Music at the University of Santo Tomas.

It rekindled my appreciation for opera, musicals and stage plays that blossomed during my college days at Centro Escolar University watching operas at Cultural Center of the Philippines like the Merry Wives of Windsor, as part of the students yearly ritual. Then it continued at Ateneo de Manila University when I was part of the cast of Kapatiran as tribute to our APO fraternity brother, Rolly Abad, who was killed by a rival fraternity at the University of the Philippines campus. This play is an Ateneo-UP co-production that was staged at UP Theater.

I'm not a natural-born thespian but when occasion calls for it, I rise to the occasion. I was cast in a stage play taking the role of the late President Ferdinand E. Marcos during the height of martial law era on the occasion of 2nd Gridiron Night on Sept. 21, 1985 at Holiday Inn in Hollywood. I happened to receive the Best Actor Award from the Filipino American Press Club of Los Angeles. The scriptwriter and director was our then Philippine News Bureau Chief Ben Aniceto. Those were the bygone days but its worth reminiscing.

For all intents and purposes, these stage performances are culturally and historically very enriching.

What I admire most on this upcoming benefit concert in collaboration with Pangasinan Brotherhood-USA are the recipients of the proceeds. According Maritess Oda, the CEO of Schemath Educational Foundation, the proceeds are earmarked for the out-of-school youths now in foster homes who will have the chance to graduate in high school in collaboration with chartered schools.

In her brief remarks, Oda stated, "We are helping young kids and youths who are out of school and undergoing transformative justice so they could have the chance to be educationally empowered. We provide them training, bridging opportunity gaps and creating pathways to education, meaningful careers, life skills, lifelong learning and be useful in the community. We're thankful to people who are more endowed and blessed who are supporting our efforts."

The supporting cast include award winning coloratura soprano Maria Cristina Kit Navarro and maestro Charlie Kim as assisting artist.

During the press con, Mr. Espiritu shared his formula on how to maintain his operatic voice: "I eat raw eggs with cinnamon, drink calamansi juice and salabat with turmeric. I sleep at least eight hours a night. I rely my singing memory with enough rest to rejuvenate my mental and physical faculties."

When asked if he had any idea that he would be a tenor or be engaged in the field of music someday, He said, "When I was a kid, I had no idea if I could sing. What I remember as a normal teenager was as member of the choir. Our teacher controlled us. When my mother ironed our clothes, I had to unplug the cord and pretended mimicking Rico Puno in those days"

How does he sustain his success? He said, a matter-of-factly, "I'm still learning a few things. I have not reached my goals or peak yet."

To satiate your curiosity, I would highly recommend that you watch this concert. It will enrich your life.

OBITUARY

Our condolences, our thoughts and our prayers to the family of APhiO Brother Oswaldo "Ka Waldy" Carbonnel, Alpha Chapter, Batch '62 - D' Clan (May 11, 1943 - September 15, 2026).

Ka Waldy was a veteran Filipino journalist, author, political commentator and an Iraq war correspondent. He was known for his nationalism especially against China's bullying of the Philippines. In July 2019 he made international news when he burned a Chinese flag and gave the finger to the Chinese embassy in Manila to protest Beijing's encroachment on Philippine waters. Rest in peace Ka Waldy.

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him

GOINGS ON by Sis. Fely Logarta-Montecillo

*“By all these lovely tokens
September days are here
With summer’s best of weather
And autumn’s best of cheer”*

Yes, September’s here! No more searing heat, no more pests that come with it, and the surroundings will be a lot cooler!

September is represented by two zodiac signs: Virgo for those born from August 23 to September 22 and Libra for those born between September 22 to October 22.

The Virgos are analytical, practical, hardworking and detail oriented, the Librans, on the other hand, are diplomatic, cooperative and focused on balance and harmony.

So to all of our brothers and sisters whose natal day fall this month, Happy Birthday! May your birthday be filled with happy feelings!

Here are some important days we ought to remember this month. Labor Day September 1, Hispanic Heritage Month, the whole month. Grandparents’ Day September.7, and International Literacy Day, September 8.

For educators, Literacy Day focuses on the importance of education. So many countries especially the Third World countries lag in educating the youth. This results into multifarious problems which societies then have to solve. I personally feel that before the lack of education affects the future of a nation, it has to be nipped in the bud.

Now we are positive that ACNA President Art Rivera has the Midas touch. Yes! Projects may not turn to gold but because of Brod Art’s leadership, they have turned to highly successful events.

Brod Art’s dedication, attention to details, and successful implementation turned out to be his formula for best results. These could be gleaned from the very favorable outcome of the ACNA Fall Meeting held last September 4 to 6 at the Crowne Plaza Hotel, Foster City, CA hosted by APO CVC. Keep up the good work Brod and more power to you!

Brod Prez Jove Jovellanos has once again, amazed us with the very positive outcome of his first fund raising activity, the Buscapade 2026 to Harrah’s Casino in San Diego, CA. The affair was able to raise over $3,000: to the coffers of the organization. This, of course, was made possible because of the cooperation of the ladies and gentlemen of our club and of the efficiency of the activity chairman, Brod Jun Linsangan. Kudos to you Brod Prez and to PP Brod Jun Linsangan!
